

($800.00) annually for the above purposes on the assessable property of said County. Before the County Commissioners shall be required to pay the aforesaid sums of money, the said Commissioners shall have the power to require the officers of said fire departments to appear before them and show to the satisfaction of said Commissioners that any sums of money paid by the said Commissioners to the said fire departments under this Act have been expended for the purposes set forth in this Act, and also that said fire departments are active fire fighting organizations. In the event said fire departments hereinbefore mentioned cease to remain active fire fighting organizations or have not used the moneys appropriated to them for the sole purposes set forth in this Act, then this Act shall become null and void.

FRIENDSVILLE.*

1904, ch. 300, sec. 111A.

185. The inhabitants of the town of Friendsville, in District No. 2, in Garrett County, Maryland, are hereby incorporated by the name of the "Mayor and Council of Friendsville," and by that name may sue and be sued, may have and use a common seal, and may hold real, personal and mixed property and dispose of the same when the best interest of the town may demand.

1904, ch. 300, sec. 111B.

186. The corporate limits of the town of Friendship† are hereby declared to be as follows: Beginning at a bounded mulberry tree standing north ten degrees west sixty perches from John T. Gary's house and running thence $59\frac{1}{2}$ degrees east 190 perches to a clump of pawpaw bushes, north 25 degrees east 140 perches to a stone corner, then south 16 degrees east 296 perches to a large rock, then south $68\frac{3}{4}$ degrees west 269 perches to a stake on brow of hill above corner, coal bank north $8\frac{1}{2}$ degrees west 152 perches to a leaning tree a little above and beyond Homer Friend's house, thence north 8 degrees west 280 perches to the beginning.

1904, ch. 300, sec. 111C.

187. Said corporation shall be governed by a Mayor and six Councilmen, and that W. W. Savage of said town be and is hereby named Mayor

*Ch. 63, 1924, authorized Friendsville to issue $15,000 of bonds for street improvements and to levy taxes to pay interest on and to redeem said bonds and to assess part of cost on abutting property. The bond issue was approved at the second election thereon.

Ch. 477, 1902, provided for incorporation of Friendsville, but this charter apparently superseded by ch. 300, 1904.

†"Friendsville" evidently intended.
