Mason and Arthur Chishom be and the same are hereby named and designated as the Councilmen for the first two years from the passage of this Act, ending on the first Wednesday after the first Tuesday in February, 1906; and that Frederick G. Fox, John W. McCullough and Geo. J. Kolb are hereby named as Councilmen to serve for the one year from the passage of this Act, ending on the first Wednesday after the first Tuesday in February, 1905; and hereafter an election shall be held on the first Tuesday in February in each and every year for the election of three Councilmen to serve for two years from the date of their election or until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified. And an election shall be held on the first Tuesday in February, 1906, for the election of Mayor of said town to serve for two years or until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified, and an election shall be held thereafter in every second year for the election of a Mayor for the said town.

1904, ch. 300, sec. 111C½.

188. The Mayor and the Council therein named shall have power to pass all such ordinances for conducting the election herein provided for, or which may be hereafter authorized to be held, and shall make return thereof to the clerk of the Circuit Court of Garrett County. And the qualified voters of any of said elections shall be bona fide male residents; shall be twenty-one years of age or over, of said town of Friendsville, who have been residents of the State for the period of one year and of said town for the period of six months continuously next before the date of any such election; and that no one shall be eligible for the office of Mayor or Councilman of said town unless he shall be a real estate owner or husband of a bona fide real estate owner in the said town. And the Mayor shall have been a resident of said town for three years previous to his election, and the Councilmen shall have been residents of said town two years prior to their election.

1904, ch. 300, sec. 111D. 1922, ch. 63. 1924, ch. 60.

189. The Mayor and Council may from time to time cause an assessment to be made of all the property liable to state and county taxes within the corporate limits and to levy a tax thereon not exceeding one dollar on the one hundred dollars in any one year, and said property shall be assessed at its actual cash value, and that the lands included within the above named corporate limits which have not been laid out as town lots or as town property shall be exempt from taxation with the exception of the buildings and personal effects thereon. And the said Council may appoint an assessor and collector of taxes and fix his salary or compensation, and provide for a method of collecting the taxes by ordinances and also the method of making assessments, and any person aggrieved by any assessment made under this provision shall have the right of appeal to
