

the said Mayor and Council of said town of Friendsville. All town taxes shall be liens on the real estate of the party indebted from the time the same are levied to the same extent as state and county taxes are liens and the said town taxes shall be collectible in the manner as state and county taxes are collectible.

1904, ch. 300, sec. 111E.

190. It shall be the duty of the said Mayor of the said town to see that the ordinances of the town are duly and faithfully executed, and he shall appoint, subject to the confirmation of the Council, all such persons as agents and servants of said corporation as may be necessary to carry out the objects and purposes of the corporation, and enforce the ordinances to be passed thereby.

1904, ch. 300, sec. 111F.

191. The said Council shall have power to pass all such ordinances not contrary to the Constitution and laws of this State as it may deem necessary for the good government of the town, for the protection and preservation of the town's property, rights and privileges; for the preservation of the peace and good order and securing persons and property from violence, danger and destruction; for the protection of the health, comfort and convenience of the citizens of Friendsville and visitors thereto, or sojourners therein; for providing proper and suitable lights on the streets; for establishing, maintaining and regulating an adequate police force; to regulate the management and location of starch factories, glue factories, renderies, tallow chandlers, bone factories, soap factories, hide houses, tanneries, slaughter houses, breweries, distillers, livery stables, foundries, and all other establishments of which the business or trade may become obnoxious or injurious to public comfort and health; to prohibit the erection of such buildings, or the continuance of such noxious occupation therein; whenever the public health requires it; to prevent or regulate the use of fire-arms, fireworks, bonfires or other things or practices use of firearms, fireworks, bonfires or other things or practices tending to endanger persons or property; to regulate or prohibit the running at large of cattle, horses, swine, fowls, sheep, goats, dogs or other animals; to authorize the impounding, keeping, sale and redemption of such animals when found in violation of the ordinance in such cases provided; to prevent the deposit of any unwholesome substance either on public or private property; to compel its removal to designated points, and to require slops, garbage, ashes and other waste or unwholesome material to be removed to designated points, or to require the occupants or residents on premises to place them conveniently for removal; to compel the occupants of any premises, buildings, or outhouses, situated in said city, when the same have been filthy or unwholesome, to abate or clean the same; to authorize the same to be done by the proper officers and to assess the expense thereon against such property; to regulate or prevent the storage of gunpowder, tar, pitch, resin, coal oil, benzine, turpentine, hemp, cotton, nitroglycerine, dynamite, giant powder, petroleum, gasoline, or gas, or any