1908, ch. 514, sec. 111J $\frac{1}{2}$ (p. 819).

196. The County Commissioners of Garrett County shall retain jurisdiction over the county roads and bridges inside the corporate limits of the town of Friendsville, and the Mayor and Council of Friendsville shall have jurisdiction and supervision over all sidewalks along said county road, and regulate the speed of travel of persons on horse back or in vehicles over the county roads and bridges in Friendsville by ordinance, and impose and collect fines for a violation of said ordinances.

1908, ch. 514, sec. 111J $\frac{3}{4}$ (p. 820). 1924, ch. 59.

197. At the time of making the county levy in each year the County Commissioners of Garrett County shall levy five hundred dollars, to be collected by the County Treasurer, and turned over to the Mayor and Council of Friendsville, to be applied to and used for the improvement and maintenance of the streets in the town of Friendsville.

1904, ch. 300, sec. 111K. 1916, ch. 438.

198. The said Mayor and Council shall have the power to compel the property owners binding along any of said streets, lanes or alleys, so accepted by said corporation and recorded among its proceedings to construct and keep in repair sidewalks and footways of their property binding on said streets and roads, and may pass all such ordinances as may be necessary to compel the construction and repair of said sidewalks. And they shall have power to enforce the construction and repair of said sidewalks by fines imposed upon the property owners for a failure to construct and repair after fifteen days' notice previously given, which said fine shall be collectible as other fines imposed for the violation of the ordinances of the town as hereinafter set forth and stated.

1904, ch. 300, sec. 111L.

199. That said Mayor and Council of Friendsville may establish and maintain a town lockup and may confine therein all persons convicted of violation of their ordinances, and in default of the payment of fines imposed for such violations or may, at their option, confine such persons in the county jail at the expense of the said town, or they may require such persons in default of payment of fine to work out such fines and costs upon the streets or other improvements of said town, such person to be allowed as a credit on such fines or costs the same wages as are paid other employees of said town for the same character of work.

1904, ch. 300, sec. 111M.

200. All fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed for violating any ordinances passed by said Mayor and Council shall be recoverable by the
