

1906, ch. 423, sec. 118.

211. All prosecutions for violation of the ordinances of said town, and all fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed for the violation of any of the ordinances of the same, shall be prosecuted and recoverable in the name of the Mayor and Council of Grantsville before such justice of the peace of the State of Maryland residing in said town as may be designated by the Mayor thereof and approved by said town Council at their first meeting for organization, and which said selection or designation of such justice of the peace shall be for one year from the time of such selection; but power is reserved to said Mayor and Council at any time to revoke such selection or appointment, and make a new selection; such justice of the peace shall have power to hear and determine all violations of the ordinances of said town, upon complaint duly made, and may commit to the town lockup all persons convicted of any violation of said town ordinances, or in default of the payment of any fines imposed for such violation, or may commit such persons to the county jail at the expense of said town; or said town Council may require such persons, in default of the payment of fines, to work out such fines and costs upon the streets or other work of improvement of said town; such person or persons to be allowed as a credit on such fines or costs the same wages as are paid other employees of said town for the same character of work; and any one feeling aggrieved by any judgment rendered by said justice of the peace shall have a right of appeal to the Circuit Court for Garrett county to the next term of said court, but no judgment, fine or penalty imposed shall be stayed unless the party taking the appeal shall file a bond, to be approved by said justice of the peace, in double the amount of the fine and costs; said bond to be made payable to the Mayor and Council of Grantsville, and conditioned upon the successful prosecution of said appeal.

212. Said Mayor and Council shall have power to pass all ordinances not contrary to the constitution and laws of the State, as it may deem necessary for the good government of the town; for the protection and preservation of the town's property rights and privileges; for the preservation of peace and good order and securing persons and property from violence, danger or destruction; for the protection of health, comfort and convenience of the citizens of Grantsville and visitors thereto or sojourners therein; for providing proper and suitable lights upon the streets; to regulate the location and management of starch factories, glue factories, bone factories, soap factories, hide houses, tanneries, slaughter houses, breweries, distilleries, livery stables and all other establishments of which the business or trade may become noxious or injurious to public comfort or health; to prohibit the erection of such buildings or the continuance of such noxious, injurious occupations therein, wherever the public comfort or health requires it; to prevent or regulate the use and sale of firearms, fireworks, bonfires, or other things or practices tending to endanger persons or property; to regulate and prohibit the running at large of cattle, horses
