

license, tax, restrain or prohibit theatrical and all other exhibitions, shows or entertainments for which money is demanded or received; provided, that lectures on scientific, historic, benevolent, artistic, religious or literary subjects, and apparatus for the education of the same and specimens of fine art, shall not be deemed to be within this provision; to regulate the sale of all kinds of property at auction in the streets, stores, shops or elsewhere in the town, and to license auctioneers and all venders of property on the streets or squares or other places in said town; to license, tax, regulate, suppress and prohibit hawkers and itinerant dealers, peddlers and pawnbrokers and to revoke such license at pleasure; to license, tax and regulate branch stores and all other concerns established in said town for temporary business only.

1906, ch. 423, sec. 120.

213. The said Mayor shall annually appoint a bailiff, whose duty it shall be to preserve the peace and good order of said town, and for this purpose he is vested with the same power and authority as constables have under the laws of this State; said bailiff shall also be the collector of all taxes levied by said Mayor and Council, and for his services as such collector he shall receive such compensation as the Mayor and Council from time to time shall fix and regulate; for all arrest and service of process as said bailiff he shall receive the same fees and compensation as is allowed constables of this State for similar work, and such other compensation from the Mayor and Council for his services as said bailiff as may be agreed upon; the said bailiff before he shall enter upon his duties as collector of taxes and before any tax list is placed in his hands for collection, he shall give a good and sufficient bond with one or more sureties to be approved by said Mayor and Council and conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties as such collector; said bond shall be payable to the Mayor and Council of Grantsville, and shall be for the sum of one thousand dollars.

1906, ch. 423, sec. 121.

214. The said Mayor and Council may from time to time cause an assessment to be made of all the property liable to State and county taxes within the corporate limits of said town of Grantsville, and to levy a tax thereon not exceeding fifty cents on the one hundred dollars in each year, and said property shall be assessed at its actual cash value and the said Mayor and Council may by ordinance provide methods and means for the collection of said taxes and for the enforcement of the payment thereof.

1906, ch. 423, sec. 122.

215. The corporate limits of the town of Grantsville are hereby declared to be as follows: Beginning at oak tree and running north 74 degrees west 275 rods to a stake; thence south 16 degrees west 100 rods to a stake; thence south 74 degrees east 275 rods to a stake; thence north 16 degrees east 100 rods to point of beginning.