

over to the County Commissioners who may return it to the owner of said hogs, provided, he makes claim and produces satisfactory proof that he is the owner of the hog or hogs so sold.

1914, ch. 288, sec. 3.

221. Nothing in this Act shall be construed so as to interfere with hogs turned out and herded so long as they do not come without twenty rods of any enclosure.

HOOP POLES AND TIMBER.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 12, sec. 123. 1880, ch. 264.

222. If any person shall knowingly enter upon the land of another and cut down, without his permission, or cause or induce any person to enter upon the land of another and cut down without his permission, with intent to appropriate to his own use, any timber or tree of a size not less than those commonly used for hoop poles, he and his aiders and abettors shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall be sentenced as for feloniously stealing goods or chattels to the value of the trees which shall be so cut down.

JURORS.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 12, sec. 124. 1878, ch. 108. 1924, ch. 14.

223. The jurors of Garrett County shall receive each three dollars and fifty cents for each day they attend the Circuit Court, and when they reside more than five miles from Oakland they shall receive an additional sum of twelve and one-half cents for each mile over five miles, to be allowed only in one direction and only once in each term.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 12, sec. 125. 1878, ch. 108. 1888, ch. 8.

224. The county commissioners shall annually levy such sum of money as they may deem sufficient to pay jurors and State's witnesses of said county for the ensuing year, which sum of money shall be collected, disbursed to said jurors and State's witnesses, and accounted for by the county treasurer as other levies are collected, disbursed and accounted for by him.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 12, sec. 126. 1878, ch. 108.

225. Any surplus that may remain in the hands of said treasurer shall be a contingent fund for paying said jurors.

1900, ch. 374, sec. 127A.

226. When selecting the list of one hundred and fifty names for Garrett County as provided for in Section seven of Article 51 of the Code of Public General Laws, the judge or judges of the Circuit Court for Garrett County drawing the jury for said county shall apportion the names of the panel of one hundred and fifty among the several election