

1906, ch. 285, sec. 138K.

256. The assessor or assessors shall be appointed from among the citizens of said town qualified to vote in said corporation, and before he or they shall proceed to act as assessor or assessors he or they shall take an oath before a justice of the peace for Garrett county that he or they will assess the value of the assessable property of every sort within said town at its full cash value, without favor, partiality or prejudice, to the best of his or their skill and judgment; he or they shall enter and record in a book to be provided for that purpose, an accurate and fair account of all property, stocks and private securities of every sort within said town liable to assessment, and the valuation thereof, together with a list of the owners thereof, which shall be returned by him or them to the said Council on or before the first Monday in June of each and every year, and which any person interested may inspect without charge; and if any one shall feel aggrieved on account of the valuation or assessment of his property by the said assessor or assessors, he may appeal from such valuation to the said Council within four weeks from the return of said assessment, and upon good cause being shown, the said Council may make any alteration in said assessment which they may deem proper and right, and take from and add to the same; and for the purpose of hearing and determining the appeals provided for in this section, the said Council shall give five days' previous notice of the time and place of hearing such appeal by advertisement, to be posted in two public places in said town.

1906, ch. 285, sec. 138L.

257. Before entering upon his duties the tax collector shall execute a bond to the State of Maryland, with two or more sureties, who shall be freeholders, to be approved by the town Council, in the penalty of such sum as may be required by the said Council; the tax collector shall promptly collect and pay over to the treasurer all taxes and other claims which may be placed in his hands for collection.

1906, ch. 285, sec. 138M.

258. The tax list shall be prepared by the clerk and delivered to the tax collector on or before the first day of July in each year. The warrant shall be in substance as follows, to wit: The Mayor of Kitsohillersville, _____ tax collector. You are hereby commanded to proceed according to law to collect and pay over the taxes hereinafter specified. Witness the corporate seal of the Mayor and Council of Kitsohillersville, by the Mayor and clerk. Attest _____, Clerk; _____, Mayor.

1906, ch. 285, sec. 138N.

259. It shall be the duty of the Mayor of said town to see that the ordinances of said town are duly and faithfully executed; he shall have general supervision of the town, and shall from time to time report to the Council such matters as in his judgment require the attention of the Council; he shall have power to administer oaths and to certify the same in all matters pertaining to said corporation; and for the purpose of
