

into Garrett County, upon their person or as their personal baggage, for their personal use only, such liquor in quantity not to exceed one quart, and the proper officers of churches may receive wine in unbroken packages for sacramental purposes only. Provided further that nothing in this Act shall prohibit the shipment of alcohol or liquors to druggists which may be necessary for medicinal purposes, and nothing herein contained shall make it unlawful to manufacture, buy, sell, ship or deliver, or deal in any bona fide medicinal, culinary or toilet preparation, official, standard or proprietary, provided that the same does not contain more alcohol than is necessary to comply with its standard or official formula, or to hold the constituents in solution, preserve the preparation or keep it from freezing, and provided the preparation is not sold for use as a beverage or intoxicant.

1914, ch. 34, sec. 5.

287. No person, house, company, manufacturer, association or body corporate, shall deposit, keep or have in his or its possession, any spirituous or fermented liquors or alcoholic bitters, or intoxicating drinks of any kind, or hard cider, tonic beer, lager beer, schnapps, or gin, or any article used or sold as a beverage, in the composition or compounding of which whiskey, brandy, high wines or alcohol or any spirituous or fermented liquors shall be an ingredient, with intent to barter or sell or give away the same in violation of the provisions of the preceding Sections, or with intent that the same shall be bartered or sold or given away in violation thereof within the limits of said County.

1914, ch. 34, sec. 6.

288. If any person, house, company, manufacturer, association, or body corporate, shall violate any of the provisions of the preceding Sections within the limits of Garrett County, he or it shall upon conviction thereof for the first offense forfeit and pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars or more than five hundred dollars, and cost of prosecution, and failing to pay such fine and cost forthwith shall be sentenced to be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for a term not less than six months or more than twelve months, and upon conviction thereof for the second, and each subsequent offense, forfeit and pay a fine of not less than $200.00 nor more than $600.00, and cost of prosecution, and to be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than six months nor more than twelve months, and failing to pay such fine and cost forthwith, shall be sentenced to be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for a term of not less than twelve months nor more than two years.

1914, ch. 34, sec. 7.

289. Nothing in the preceding sections shall be construed to prevent the compounding or sale of any such liquors by a regular Pharmacist or Druggist who may or shall have obtained a license therefor under the