

profits of the business conducted in any other place in said County where any intoxicating liquors are sold or kept for sale; sixth, that no person except the applicant is in any manner directly or indirectly interested in the business petitioned to be licensed, and that no other person shall be pecuniarily interested therein during the continuance of the license; seventh, that the applicants have not nor have any of them had a license for the sale of intoxicating liquors in this State revoked nor has been convicted of any crime within one year preceding the filing of said petition; and, provided, the said applicant shall file with the petition, a written certificate signed by ten male freeholders, resident citizens within the corporate limits of the town wherein the applicant desires to sell, setting forth their belief that the applicant for such license will keep an orderly house and duly observe all the provisions of this Act; and each signing said certificate shall make affidavit before said Clerk or before a Justice of the Peace of said County, that he is over thirty years of age; that he is the owner of real estate in the town wherein he resides, of the assessed value of at least three thousand dollars above encumbrances and that he has not during the current year signed a certificate for any other person applying for license to sell spirituous, fermented or malt liquors within said County, and that he, himself, has not applied for a license to sell spirituous, fermented or malt liquors in said County, and said applicant shall satisfy the said Clerk by his own oath, and by the oath of two respectable and disinterested witnesses of their belief therein that he has bona fide and without intending to evade the spirit and meaning of this Act, duly provided and will maintain and keep for use at least five chambers more than are needed for private or the family purposes of said hotel keeper to be used for the reception of guests or permanent or transient boarders, and at least six beds with sufficient covering, and all of said chambers and beds to be and to remain on the said premises, on which spirituous or fermented liquors are by this Act licensed to be sold; and each and every applicant shall file in the office of the said Clerk, a bond duly executed to the State of Maryland with at least three sureties, to be approved by said Clerk in the penal sum of two thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful observance of the provisions of this Act, and the payment of any and all fines, penalties and damages which may be imposed or recovered under this Act; provided, that each surety on said bond shall make affidavit before said Clerk or before a Justice of the Peace of said County, that said surety is the owner in fee simple of unencumbered real estate in Garrett County of the assessed value of at least two thousand dollars, and that said surety has not within the current year executed a bond for any other applicant to sell spirituous or fermented liquors in Garrett County; said bond shall be responsible to all such persons hereinafter described as may be injured by the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors sold in violation of the provisions of this Act. No bond of any applicant shall be approved by said Clerk, if it shall appear to him that either of the sureties thereon or that any applicant has become surety upon the bond of any other applicant. Said application shall be