

shall make or sign any such prescription unless the person for whom it shall be made is actually sick, or such liquor is absolutely required as a medicine.

1914, ch. 34, sec. 20.

301. Any pharmacist or druggist who shall violate the provisions of the preceding sections, or refuse to produce the book before any court of justice when so asked to do, shall render such druggist or pharmacist so failing, liable to the same penalties as if he had sold intoxicating liquors without a license. Any physician who shall make or sign any prescription for such liquor except as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than fifty dollars, nor more than three hundred dollars and cost of prosecution, and be committed to the County jail of said County until such fine and costs of prosecution are paid; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the sale or gift of liquors to be used in case of extreme illness, when delay may be dangerous to the patient, nor to prevent the sale by a pharmacist or druggist of wine to be used for sacramental purposes solely.

302. Any person who shall sell directly or indirectly at any place in Garrett County, or give away directly or indirectly at any place of business in said County, any spirituous, fermented or malt liquor, without first having obtained a license as required by this Act upon indictment and conviction thereof, for the first offence, forfeit and pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars or more than five hundred dollars and cost of prosecution, and failing to pay such fine and cost forthwith, shall be sentenced to be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for a term of not less than six months or more than twelve months and upon conviction thereof, for the second, and each subsequent offense forfeit and pay a fine of not less than two hundred dollars, nor more than six hundred dollars and costs of prosecution, and be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for not less than six months, nor more than twelve months and failing to pay such fine and cost forthwith shall be sentenced to be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for a term of not less than twelve months nor more than two years.

303. No person obtaining a license under this Act shall knowingly permit minors to enter the bar room where liquor is sold, unless said minor is accompanied by the parent or guardian of such minor or is an employe of the person holding said license, nor shall any person obtaining a license under this Act, his agents, servants or employes sell directly or indirectly, or give away at his, their or its place of business or elsewhere, any spirituous or fermented liquors, alcoholic bitters or intoxicating drinks of any kind whatsoever, to any minor or to any person known
