

by such vendor to be purchasing or receiving such liquors or intoxicating drink as the agent of, or on behalf of, or at the request of any minor.

1914, ch. 34, sec. 23.

304. Any person who shall violate the provisions of the preceding section, shall, upon indictment and conviction thereof be fined not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, failing to pay such fine and cost of prosecution forthwith, shall be sentenced to be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for a term not less than three months, nor more than six months; and the license of such person shall be suppressed.

305. No vendor of spirituous or fermented liquors licensed under this Act, shall sell directly or indirectly any spirituous or fermented liquors to any person known to him to be intoxicated at the time, nor shall it be lawful for any such licensed vendor to keep open the room where spirituous or fermented liquors are sold, between the hours of twelve o'clock at night and six o'clock in the morning, nor to sell directly or indirectly or give away in such room, or on or about the premises of such vendor any spirituous or fermented liquor whatsoever between the hours aforesaid.

1914, ch. 34, sec. 25.

306. Any person violating any of the provisions of the preceding section, shall upon indictment and conviction thereof be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars or be imprisoned in the County Jail not less than thirty nor more than ninety days.

1914, ch. 34, sec. 26.

307. Any vendor of spirituous or fermented liquors sold in Garrett County, shall be liable to pay damages to any husband, wife, parents, child, employer or other person, injured by reason of any person being intoxicated by liquor sold by said vendor in violation of any of the provisions of this Act, to be recovered in the same manner as debts for like amounts are now recovered by law.

1914, ch. 34, sec. 27.

308. Nothing in the preceding sections shall be construed to authorize any sale or barter or the giving away of any spirituous or fermented liquor on the Sabbath Day, commonly called "Sunday," or on the day of any election held in said County under the constitution and laws of the State or of the United States.

1914, ch. 34, sec. 28.

309. In any prosecution under this Act it shall be only necessary to state that the traverser did sell or give away spirituous, fermented, or malt liquor without specifying the particular kind of liquor given away.
