

proceed to collect said tax out of the personal property of such person or corporation; and if the said tax cannot be made out of the personal property of such person or corporation, then the same may be collected out of the rents of his, her or their real estate by due process of law, or the Treasurer may sell such real estate for the payment of taxes by complying with the same requirements as the Treasurer of Garrett County.

362. The Treasurer shall execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed of the property sold, and the said deed shall convey to the purchaser of said property a good title thereto, and shall be presumptive evidence that all the requirements of the law have been complied with in making assessments levy, sale and deed; and unless the delinquent owner or owners of said property, or his or their grantee, mortgagee, assignee or legal representative shall within one year from the date of said tax sale redeem such property by paying to the purchaser or his legal representative the whole amount of money paid by him for said property, with interest thereon at fifteen per centum per annum, said title shall become absolute and indefensible.

363. The Treasurer shall make all collections required of him and report to the clerk in writing within six months from the time the same is placed in his hands the total collected, from whom collected, and the amounts still outstanding, if any, and the said clerk shall immediately make a record thereof. The Treasurer shall assess all improvements or additions to properties in the town which may be made after a general assessment or which may come to his knowledge as being omitted from the assessment books of the town, and an appeal may be taken from his valuation in the Council.

1896, ch. 450, sec. 25. 1902, ch. 592, sec. 25.

364. The chief bailiff shall attend all meetings of the Council and perform such duties as the Mayor and Council shall direct. He shall preserve the peace and good order of the town, and for this purpose he is invested with the same jurisdiction, power and authority as any constable of Garrett county has under the laws of this State.

1896, ch. 450, sec. 26.

365. The Council shall provide suitable badges, which shall be worn in plain view by the chief bailiff and under-bailiffs at all times, when in the performance of the duties of their office. The duties of the under-bailiffs, when appointed, shall be to assist the chief bailiff, and they shall be subject to his order and directions; for that purpose they shall have all the power and authority herein conferred on the chief bailiff.
