

of said officers so appointed, as provided in Section 404, during their incumbency.

1898, ch. 25, sec. 171. 1918, ch. 26, sec. 171.

409. No person shall be eligible to the office of Mayor unless he shall have attained the age of thirty years, and shall have resided two years next preceding his election in said town, and shall be a freeholder in said town of Oakland. The Mayor elected at any regular election shall hold office for two years from the first Monday in April next after his election and until after his successor is elected and qualified. Should a vacancy occur in the office of Mayor by reason of removal from town, removal from office, death, resignation or otherwise, the president of the council shall perform all the duties of Mayor and act as such until the next general election of the Mayor and Council. Wilful neglect of duty or misbehavior in office on the part of the Mayor is hereby declared a misdemeanor, and on conviction before a justice of the peace or in the Circuit Court for Garrett County, he shall be removed from office by the Justice of the Peace or Judge who shall sit in the case, and any person who shall be convicted and removed from the office of Mayor as aforesaid, shall be disqualified from holding any office in said corporation. He shall, on the second Monday in April of each year appoint and send to the Town Council for confirmation the names of persons for the office of police magistrate, attorney, and weighmaster respectively. He shall have power to remove for cause any officers, agent, servant or employee of said corporation who has been appointed by him or employed by him and to fill any and all vacancies which may occur in offices which he has the power to fill. He shall have general supervision of the town, see that the ordinances are enforced, and from time to time report to the Town Council such matters as may in his judgment require the attention of the Town Council. He shall read and sign the minutes of the Town Council after each and every meeting. He shall have power to administer oaths and certify the same in all matters pertaining to said corporation which may be required by the business or transactions of said corporation. He shall in the absence or sickness of the police magistrate, in such case only, have power to hear and determine all cases to which said corporation may be a party, and over which the police magistrate may have jurisdiction, and for this purpose he is hereby clothed with all the power and authority of a justice of the peace. No ordinance shall be valid without his approval unless the same be passed over his veto by a two-thirds vote, nor shall any order or resolution for the payment of money out of the town treasury be valid without his approval in writing. He shall during his official term hold no other corporation office, nor shall he be interested in any contract to which the said corporation is a party or when the money for any contract is to be paid out of the corporation treasury. He shall receive the sum of one hundred dollars a year for his official services to be paid in quarterly installments of twenty-five dollars. Before entering upon his duties he shall take and subscribe to before the clerk of the Circuit Court
