

150 and 152 of Art. 25 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland proceed to examine and determine whether the public convenience requires that the said road shall be so opened.

1918, ch. 319, sec. 206E.

482. All roads so opened under the provisions of this chapter shall be at least twenty feet wide and when opened and sufficiently cleared shall be public roads.

1918, ch. 319, sec. 206F.

483. If no objection be made to the return of the examiners at the meeting of the County Commissioners next succeeding the meeting at which said return shall be made, the County Commissioners may proceed to pass judgment thereon and affirm or reject the same or order it to be amended in their discretion, or may continue said proceedings over to their next meeting and so on from time to time so long as they may think proper.

1918, ch. 319, sec. 206G.

484. The said examiners shall be entitled to compensation for their services and attendance not exceeding two dollars per day to be ascertained by the County Commissioners, with all charges arising from the survey or attendance to witnesses and other expenses shall be paid by the County Commissioners.

1918, ch. 319, ch. 206H.

485. In all cases where the County Commissioners shall adjudge that a road shall be opened as provided for in the preceding sections they shall at the usual time for levying taxes, levy on the assessable property of the county a sum sufficient to open said road, and also sufficient to pay the damages awarded, and it shall be the duty of the County Commissioners to open said road as soon as can conveniently be done.

SCHOOLS.*

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 12, sec. 207. 1878, ch. 345.

486. The treasurer of the State, upon the warrant of the comptroller, shall pay annually on the first Monday of July, to the board of school commissioners for Garrett county, the sum of twelve hundred dollars, to be applied to the public school fund of said county; said sum shall be applied by them to the support of the Grantsville and Oakland schools in equal amounts; and said Grantsville and Oakland schools shall be taken and considered as high schools, and open to pupils from any part of the county; provided, that whenever the board of school commissioners shall establish a high school, such as is provided for in article 77 of the public

*Most of the provisions of this subtitle have been modified or superseded by general laws and by the State Budget System. See Annotated Code, Art. 77.