

years or until their successors shall be elected and have qualified; and they shall receive no pay for their services. The judges of election shall have access to the tax books of said town for the purpose of determining the qualification of any voter whose right to vote is questioned.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 4.

7. The commissioners shall bi-annually on or before the first Saturday in April, give notice by hand-bills or by publication in some newspaper published in said town of the election, and shall appoint three judges who shall conduct the election according to the election laws of the State of Maryland, except that the polls shall be opened at twelve o'clock M. and close at six o'clock P. M. The first election held under this Act shall be held on the first Saturday of May, 1892, and it shall be the duty of the County Commissioners of Harford County to designate the place, and appoint the judges of said election.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 5.

8. The commissioners shall meet in said town on or before the first Saturday in June next succeeding their election, and as often thereafter as may be necessary, to discharge the duties of their office, not less, however, than once in every three months.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 6.

9. The commissioners, shall, on their first meeting, after an election, elect one of their number to be president of the board, and all vacancies in the board of commissioners shall be filled by an election held, after ten days' notice given by the remaining commissioners.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 7.

10. The commissioners shall annually appoint a clerk, who shall also be treasurer, who shall keep the minutes of the proceedings in a well bound book, which shall be open to the inspection of all persons interested therein, and shall record in a similar book, all ordinances passed by the commissioners, and the president of the board shall sign his name to all ordinances as recorded, and the clerk shall attest his signature, and the clerk shall discharge such other duties as the commissioners may require.

See sec. 29.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 8.

11. The commissioners shall appoint annually a bailiff and such under bailiffs as may be deemed necessary for said town, who shall prevent disorderly or irregular meetings of persons, and enforce the ordinances enacted by the commissioners, superintend all work being done for or by said town corporation within its limits, light, care for and take charge of the street lamps of the said town, and perform such other duties as the said commissioners may prescribe, and who shall have, within said town, all the authority of a constable in making arrest and serving warrants.