

assent to the ordinance shall deposit a ballot having written or printed upon it the words "In favor of Ordinance No. (giving the number) of the Commissioners of Aberdeen, authorizing the issue of (naming the amount) dollars of bonds"; and those refusing their assent to the ordinance shall deposit a ballot having written or printed upon it the words "Against Ordinance No. (giving the number) of the Commissioners of Aberdeen, authorizing the issue of (naming the amount) dollars of bonds"; that the polls shall be open at twelve o'clock M., and close at seven o'clock P. M., and at the closing of the polls the judges of election shall count the ballots so cast, and shall then return the same and the tally sheets of their count to the said commissioners on the day following that upon which the election was held, and the said commissioners shall immediately announce and publish the result; and if a majority of those voting have given their assent to the ordinance, it shall take effect from the date of the announcement and publication of the result by the said commissioners.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 20.

23. The commissioners shall publish annually a full and complete itemized statement of their receipts and disbursements in some newspaper published in Harford County; said statement to be inserted once only, and at least one week before the annual levy.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 21.

24. Any person may appeal from the valuation made by the assessors to the commissioners at their next regular meeting and the commissioners shall remain in session as long as may be reasonable to hear and determine such appeals and give reasonable notice of such meeting and may abate or increase the assessment as may seem just.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 22.

25. The bailiff shall have the same fees for making arrest or serving process for the violation of any ordinance of the corporation as are allowed constables for similar services, and when the bailiff wilfully fails to discharge any duties of his office he may, in addition to the remedy of his bond, be fined by the commissioners in their discretion not exceeding ten dollars for any one offense, for the payment of which said fine his bond shall be responsible.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 23.

26. The town commissioners of Aberdeen shall in each year after the passage of this Act make a levy for town purposes on or before the 30th day of June and shall forthwith place the tax lists in the hands of the treasurer of said town for collection.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 24.

27. All taxes shall be fairly laid and shall not exceed in any one year one hundred cents in every one hundred dollars taxable property in said