SEWERAGE SYSTEM.

1927, ch. 254, sec. 1.

137. The Commissioners of the town of Bel Air, Harford County, Maryland, are hereby authorized, empowered and directed at the first meeting after the passage of this act, to appoint a Sewerage Commission consisting of four members, and not connected with the town government, who, together with the President of the Board of Town Commissioners, ex-officio, shall constitute a special Commission to be known as the "Bel Air Sewerage Commission," (hereinafter designated as the "Commission,") and who shall continue in office from year to year until the work of said Commission, under this Act, has been fully and finally completed in every respect. All persons appointed to said Commission shall be subject to removal by the Board of Town Commissioners at any time for cause. Any member of said Sewerage Commission may at any time resign therefrom by tendering his resignation in writing to the Board of Town Commissioners; and any vacancy in said Sewerage Commission occasioned by the resignation, removal, death or permanent absence from this State, of the incumbent or by supervening incapacity, on his part, whether physical or mental, to discharge his duties, or by any other cause operating to create such a vacancy, either actually or in effect, shall be filled by the Board of Town Commissioners in the manner and subject to all the conditions as the original appointments. A majority of said Commissioners shall be lawful quorum for the transaction of business; the Commission is authorized, empowered and directed to build and construct, alter, extend, maintain, operate, control and regulate a sanitary sewerage system and sewage disposal plant and any and all appurtenances to same for the town of Bel Air, Harford County, State of Maryland, within the corporate limits of said town, and to issue bonds, promissory notes and certificates of indebtedness on the faith and credit of said town for the payment for such system, and to acquire by purchase or condemnation whatever property or rights-of-way within or outside of the corporate limits of said town they may deem necessary and proper, and to do whatever work and employ whatever help is necessary therefor.

138. The Commission is authorized and directed to organize, as soon as possible after being appointed, and to elect one of their members, other than ex-officio member, chairman, who shall preside at any and all meetings of said Commission and in case of his absence a Chairman pro tempore shall be chosen. Said Commission shall meet for regular business whenever and wherever in the town of Bel Air or on the work they deem
