

1916, ch. 680, sec. 157.

162. The County Commissioners of each of the said counties are respectively authorized and empowered, in their discretion, in case either contribute towards the building of the bridge aforesaid, or subscribe to the stock of a company organized to build the same as hereinbefore provided, to divide the amount so contributed or subscribed into as many equal parts as they may deem proper, not exceeding four, and to issue certificates of indebtedness therefor; that is to say, for one of said parts payable in one year, for another of said parts payable in two years, for another of said parts payable in three years, for another of said parts payable in four years; or said certificates shall be payable at as many annual intervals as said amount is divided into parts, said certificates to bear interest, not exceeding five per cent. interest per annum, until their maturity, but not afterwards; and it shall be the duty of the County Commissioners of the County where such certificates have been issued, and they are directed, to levy upon the assessable property of said County for the payment of the same at their maturity in the annual levy next preceding said maturity.

CIRCUIT COURT.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 158.

163. There shall be four terms of the Circuit Court for Harford County in each year, commencing, respectively, on the second Monday in February, the second Monday in May, the second Monday of September, and the second Monday in November.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 159.

164. Juries shall be summoned to each of said terms of the Court, except the September term, and may be summoned to the September term, if in the judgment of the Court, the public business so requires.

1922, chs. 140 and 223, sec. 159A.

165. In addition to the first day of each term of the Circuit Court for Harford County, the second Monday in each other month of the year shall hereafter be a rule day for the return of process in civil cases, unless same be a legal holiday, in which case the day next succeeding shall be the rule day; and the words "return day" wherever used in this subtitle of this Article shall apply as well to the first day of the term as to the other return days herein enumerated.

SPEEDY JUDGMENT ACT.

1922, chs. 140 and 223, sec. 159B.

166. All original writs, writs of execution, attachment, replevin, ejectment, scire facias and habere facias, as well as all other writs or process issued from or returnable to said Court, which, under the practice heretofore existing, would have been returnable to the first day of the term,
