

1922, chs. 140 and 223, sec. 159L.

176. Any action taken or order passed by said court in relation to any judgment rendered by it, if taken or passed within thirty days after the entry of such judgment, or upon a motion or application made to it within said thirty days, shall have the same effect and force as it would have had under the practice heretofore existing in said court, if taken or passed during the term, or upon a motion or application made during the term at which said judgment was entered, and no more; but any such action taken or order passed after the expiration of thirty days from the entry of any judgment (unless upon a motion or application made within that time) shall have the same effect and force as it would have had under such previous practice, if taken or passed after the expiration of said term, and no more; and the said court shall have, for a period of thirty days after the doing of any act or thing in any cause before it, the same revisory power and control over such act or thing which, under the practice heretofore existing, they would have had over the same during the term at which it was done, and no more; and, after thirty days from the doing of any such act or thing, the said court shall have the same revisory power and control thereover, which, under such previous practice, they would have had after the expiration of the term at which said act or thing was done, and no more.

1922, chs. 140 and 223, sec. 159M.

177. In all cases where the pre-existing laws direct or require that any act or thing shall be done in or by said court during the same term at which some other act or thing may be done or happen, such first mentioned act or thing shall hereafter be done within thirty days after the doing or happening of said last mentioned act or thing.

JUVENILE COURT.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 160.

178. For the purpose of this Act, the words "dependent child" and "neglected child" shall be construed as meaning any male child living in Harford County, and being under the age of twenty years, or any female child living in said County, being under the age of eighteen years, who for any cause is destitute, homeless or abandoned, or dependent upon the public for support, or has not fit and proper parental care or guardianship, or who is feeble-minded or otherwise mentally deficient, or who habitually begs for alms, or is found living with any vicious or depraved person, or has a home, which, by reason of neglect, cruelty or depravity on the part of its parent or parents, guardian or other persons having charge of it, is an unfit place for such a child.

The term "delinquent child" shall be construed as meaning any male or female child living in Harford County under the ages above specified, and who, while under age, may violate any criminal law of the State, or is incorrigible, or knowingly associates with thieves, vicious and depraved
