

notes taken under the provisions of this section, or to read the same, nor shall he disclose the same, or any part thereof, or give any information of any kind relative thereto to any person whatsoever, save only the grand jury and the State's Attorney, except upon the written order of the Court. And said stenographic notes and any typewritten copy thereof shall be kept in the custody of the State's Attorney, and shall be held by him for the sole use of himself and the grand jury until disposed of upon the written order of the Court; provided, however, the stenographer may give a typewritten copy of testimony taken at coroner's inquests, upon an order signed by the Judge, to any party interested in the proceedings before the coroner, to be paid for by the party requesting the same at the rate of ten cents for every 100 words.

1922, ch. 292.

197. The Court Stenographer of the Circuit Court for Harford County is hereby required as a condition precedent to the holding of his said office to give a corporate bond to the State of Maryland in the penal sum of two thousand ($2,000.00) dollars conditioned for the faithful performance of all of his duties as such stenographer.

Said bond shall be responsible for any loss, damage, costs or expenses suffered or incurred by any interested person or persons from or on account of any failure of said stenographer to perform all or any of his duties in a prompt and efficient manner.

The annual cost of said bond shall be paid by the County Commissioners of Harford County.

COURT LIBRARY.

1924, ch. 79.

198. All the fines imposed in and recognizances forfeited to the Circuit Court for Harford County shall be paid to the Clerk of the said Court to be kept by him in a separate fund to be expended under the direction of said Court in the augmentation and maintenance of the library of said Court.

CLERK OF COURT.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 179.

199. It shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Circuit Court to enter in a general index, in the name of both plaintiff and defendant, all judgments and decrees on the day on which said judgments are rendered or decrees passed, and also to enter the same when satisfied; for which services he shall be allowed the sum of fifty cents, to be paid by the parties to the suit, respectively, as other costs are now paid.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 180.

200. It shall also be the duty of said clerk to make and keep a general index of all deeds, conveyances and other papers required to be recorded, upon the plan formulated by the committee appointed under the provisions of the Act of 1888, Chapter 323.
