

CRIER.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 219. 1916, ch. 711, sec. 1. 1927, ch. 296.

236. The Crier of the Circuit Court shall be allowed the sum of Seven Hundred and Fifty Dollars, ($750) per annum, payable in equal monthly installments, and the same shall be levied and paid in the same manner and upon the same evidence as the allowance to Bailiffs, and the said allowance shall be in lieu of his fees, and shall be the entire compensation for his duties.

DARLINGTON—LIVE STOCK IN.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 220.

237. It shall not be lawful for swine, horses, cows, calves, bulls, sheep, goats or cattle to go at large in the public roads in the village of Darlington in Harford County, or on the public roads within one mile of the town hall in said village.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 221.

238. Any and every person owning said animals, or any of them mentioned in the preceding section who shall permit the same or any of them to go at large on the public roads mentioned in the said section, shall be fined five dollars for each offense, to be recovered by an action of debt before any justice of the peace in Harford County, in the name of the State of Maryland, for the use of the County Commissioners of said County, to be applied by them to the repairing of the public roads in the said village of Darlington, or within one mile of the town hall in said village, or recoverable by indictment in the Circuit Court for said County, and payable to the said County Commissioners for the same purpose.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 222.

239. It shall be the duty of the constables of Harford County to take up, seize and impound any and all of the animals mentioned in Section 237 found by him going at large on any of the public roads specified in said section, and shall immediately give notice thereof by notice set up by him at the post office in the village of Darlington and other public places in said village, and also to the owner of said animals, if he shall know the same, describing the animals so seized and impounded and that the same will be sold at public sale for cash at the post office door in said village at the time mentioned in said notice, which shall be at least five days and not more than ten days before the day of sale; provided, that if the owners of said animals or any of them shall, before the said sale, pay to the said constable one dollar for taking up each of the said animals owned by them, and fifty cents for putting up and giving each of the notices of said sale, and the expenses incurred by him for keeping and feeding said animals, the said constable shall then deliver the said animals to the owner or his agent.
