

registration shall be made by the Mayor and City Council or the Clerk thereto in the year 1924, or at any other time than as herein expressly set forth.

In the event of the sickness or temporary absence of the Clerk, the Mayor is hereby authorized to appoint a Deputy Clerk to discharge the duties of said officer.

Moore v. Bay, 149 Md. 286.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 289.

282. The City Clerk shall be the custodian of the registry books, and shall keep the same in the safe provided by the Mayor and City Council, and shall deliver the same to the Judges of Election when required for elections to be held in said City. The said Clerk shall furnish to any person applying for the same an accurate copy of the list of registered voters of said City at the price of one cent for each name thereon; except as herein otherwise provided, the said City Clerk, or his Deputy, acting as Officer of Registration, shall have all the powers and be subject to all the penalties which are or may hereafter be by law provided for officers of registration under the General Election Laws of Maryland.

Moore v. Bay, 149 Md. 286.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 290.

283. It shall be the duty of the Board of Supervisors of Election for said City to provide ballots for every election to be held under this Charter, and cause to be printed on the ballot the name of every candidate whose name has been certified to or nominated in the manner hereinbefore provided. Each ballot shall contain a statement of every question to be submitted to the vote of the people at any election. Ballots other than those printed and furnished by the Board of Supervisors of Election according to the provisions of this Charter shall not be cast or counted in any election held in said City under the provisions of this Act, and no name or names except those nominated to said Board and printed on the official ballot shall be counted by the Judges of Election in determining the result of any election held under this Act. Any voter may take with him into the polling room any written or printed memorandum or paper to assist him in marking or preparing his ballot except a fac simile of the ballot to be voted. Ballots shall be printed and in possession of the Supervisors at least four days before election day, and a correct list of the names of the candidates thereon, with the designation of the offices for which the persons are candidates shall be furnished by said Supervisors to any qualified voter of said City on demand. It shall be the duty of said Supervisors to correct any mistakes that may be discovered in said ballot without delay.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 291. 1922, ch. 435.

284. The form and arrangement of the official ballot shall be the same as is now, or may hereafter be provided by law for State and County
