

HUCKSTERS.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 403.

398. It shall not be lawful for any person not a permanent resident of this State to come into Harford County, for the purpose of carrying on the business of huckstering, by gathering butter, eggs, poultry, etc., without having first obtained from the Clerk of the Circuit Court for such county, a license therefor.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 404.

399. For any and every license thus granted, the said clerk shall demand and be entitled to receive as follows: for a license to employ not more than one team of not less than three horses or mules, the sum of eighty dollars; for a license to employ not more than one team of not more than two horses or mules, the sum of sixty dollars; for a license to employ not more than one team of not more than one horse or mule, the sum of forty dollars.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 405.

400. Any person violating the provisions of Section 398, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine of fifty dollars, which fine shall be collectible as small debts are now collected, one-half to the informer, and the other half to be applied to the use of the public schools of the county.
