

1916, ch. 680, sec. 420. 1929, ch. 90, sec. 420.

415. No person, house, company, association or body corporate shall deposit, keep or have in his or their possession, any spirituous or fermented liquors, alcoholic bitters or intoxicating drinks of any kind, or tonic beer, lager beer, schnapps or gin, or any article used and sold as a beverage, in the composition or compounding of which whiskey, brandy, high wines or alcoholic or spirituous or fermented liquors shall be an ingredient or ingredients, with intent to barter or sell or give away the same in violation of the provisions of the preceding section, or with intent that the same shall be bartered or sold, or given away, in violation thereof, within the limits of said county, or to aid or assist any person, house, company, association or body corporate in such barter, sale or gift.

416. If any person, house, company, association or body corporate shall violate any of the provisions of the two preceding sections, he or they shall, on each and every conviction thereof, before any court or Justice of the Peace, be sentenced to be confined in the Maryland House of Correction not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or forfeit and pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than six hundred dollars, and costs of prosecution, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the Court or Magistrate, as the case may be, and failing to pay any such fine and costs forthwith, shall be sentenced to be confined in the Maryland House of Correction, for a term not less than three months nor more than twelve months, or until such fine and costs are paid.

417. The provisions of the three preceding sections shall not apply, nor be construed to apply, to registered druggists or pharmacists holding a permit from the United States Government to dispense liquor or intoxicating drinks on prescriptions of regularly practicing physicians, and any and all duly registered druggists or pharmacists holding such permits engaged in such business or who shall hereafter engage in the drug business in Harford County shall be, and they are hereby authorized to buy, hold and dispense within said county alcoholic liquors for medicinal purposes under the license and authority of the United States Government.

418. In the trial of any person, or any house, company, association or body corporate, for a violation of any of the preceding sections of this sub-title of this article, it shall be lawful for the State to prove that such person, house, company, association or body corporate, on trial, has or have paid (if such be the case) a special tax to the government of the United States, under the internal revenue laws thereof, upon or for his or its business as brewers or retail dealers in liquors, or wholesale dealers in liquors, or retail dealers in malt liquors, or wholesale dealers in malt
