

and the County Treasurer shall only check on the second class or interest bearing Daily Balance accounts at such time as it shall be necessary to keep the accounts of the first class sufficient to meet current expenses and provided that the deposit made in any bank or Trust Company shall not exceed 50% of the paid in Capital stock of such Bank or trust Company.*

1916, ch. 680, sec. 470.

471. The said treasurer shall keep separate accounts of the State and county levies of taxes, and the sums received by him on account of the county levy shall be disbursed exclusively for county purposes; and any person for whose use a levy is made shall be entitled to receive the same in full on the first day of January next succeeding the date of such levy; provided, however, that he may previous to that time procure from the County Commissioners an order stating the amount of such levy; and the treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to receive said orders, or so much thereof as may be necessary in payment of taxes due under the levy upon which such order is issued.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 471.

472. The treasurer shall pay over the State taxes and the county levies for school purposes at the times and in the manner prescribed by the laws of the State.

Allen v. State, 98 Md. 698.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 472.

473. The treasurer shall receive as compensation for all his services as treasurer an annual salary of $1,500, to be paid monthly, two per cent. commission on all State tax paid over by him, and such commission as may accrue under the provisions of this Act.

1916, ch. 680, sec. 473. 1920, ch. 444.

474. The treasurer shall appoint such clerks as may be necessary for the proper discharge of the duties of his office, who shall be deputy treasurers, shall qualify under the Constitution of the State, and shall give such bond to the treasurer as he may require, but the aggregate annual salary of said clerks shall in no case exceed the sum of sixteen hundred dollars ($1,600).

1916, ch. 680, sec. 474.

475. The County Commissioners shall provide at the public expense a suitable office for the treasurer, furnish the same amply and conveniently, and shall annually levy such sums as may be necessary to pay the salaries of the treasurer and his clerks, his commissions on State taxes, the cost of books, stationery and stamps for his office, and all printing and advertising required under the provisions of this Act and not otherwise provided for.

*Sec. 2, ch. 219, 1927, repealed all Acts inconsistent therewith.
