

that any person who shall have a private water supply upon his own property and who shall have maintained such water supply previous to the construction of any cesspool or other receptacle or contrivance, or earth pit which he may allege to have polluted his water supply, may make application to the County Commissioners for an investigation to determine if his water supply is polluted by the said earth pit, cesspool or other receptacle or contrivance. If, upon such investigation, such private water supply shall be found to be polluted by said cesspool, earth pit or other receptacle or contrivance, the County Commissioners shall order the use of such cesspool, earth pit or other receptacle or contrivance discontinued. Any person refusing or neglecting to obey such order of the County Commissioners shall be liable to the penalty provided by Section 39* for refusing to comply with the rules and regulations of the County Commissioners as aforesaid.

1910, ch. 315, sec. 45-O (p. 912).

91. Nothing in the preceding sections shall be construed as limiting or qualifying the right of said County Commissioners, constituting the Local Board of Health, to maintain proceedings in equity to enjoin the commission, maintenance or continuance of nuisance of any kind affecting health.

1910, ch. 315, sec. 45P (p. 912).

92. Nothing in any of the foregoing provisions relating to the preservation of the public health in Howard County shall be taken as in any wise repealing or as in substitution for any provision of the Public General Laws relating to health, except and only in so far as any of the foregoing sections are inconsistent therewith.

COUNTY TREASURER.

93. The County Commissioners of Howard county shall appoint a competent person, resident of Howard county, treasurer for said county, who shall give bond and qualify as hereinafter directed, and who shall hold his office until his successor is elected and qualified, as hereinafter provided, and who shall be subject at all times to be removed by the Governor, for wilful neglect of duty or misdemeanor in office, upon conviction in a court of law; the said treasurer shall be collector of all State and county taxes for whatsoever purpose or purposes levied or to be levied for or within said county during the term of his office, or that may be placed in his hands for collection; and he shall have full power, and it shall be his duty, to receive and collect all State and county taxes levied as aforesaid, and so put in his hands for collection, and all moneys which may be due said State and county, with full power to enforce the payment of the same by sale or otherwise, and to convey title to any real or
