

and it shall be his duty to attend in person to collect and receive taxes at least twice during the collection year in each election district at such time and places as he may designate, of which at least ten days' notice shall be given by publication in a newspaper or newspapers and by hand bills posted in the respective districts, at the expense of the county; not to exceed, however, the sum of fifty dollars.

1896, ch. 317, sec. 4. 1920, ch. 733.

96. It shall be the duty of the Clerk of County Commissioners of Howard County within ten days after the annual tax levy shall have been made, to deliver to the Treasurer a fair copy of the assessment list of said County, showing the aggregate assessment of every person, corporate institution or set of persons as the same then appears on the assessment books of said county, with the names of said owners arranged according to election districts and alphabetically for each district and the amount of said State and County taxes due and owing by every person, corporate institution or set of persons, also to deliver to said Treasurer a certified copy of the rules or resolutions of said County Commissioners making said tax levy, and also to deliver to said Treasurer a certified copy from such book containing the same, of a list of each item for which and each person for whom a levy is made and the amount thereof, and the said Treasurer shall pay the same out of his collections upon the order of said County Commissioners, and the said Treasurer shall receive for his services a salary of two thousand ($2,000.00) dollars per annum, to be paid by the said County Commissioners.

1896, ch. 317, sec. 5. 1900, ch. 455, sec. 5.

97. All taxes unpaid on the first day of October following the levy shall bear interest from said first day of October until paid at the rate of six per centum per annum, and said treasurer shall account for said interest in his settlement with the County Commissioners.

Findlay v. Darnall, 143 Md. 291.

1896, ch. 317, sec. 6.

98. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to keep certain books and all needful stationery, including postage to be paid for by the commissioners, in which books shall be entered a full, fair and correct account of all matters relating to the duties of his office; he shall also keep a full and fair correct cash account, showing all sums of money received by him, so as to indicate the sources whence received and showing all sums of money disbursed by him, so as to indicate the purposes to which applied; he shall report and exhibit to the said commissioners, and in every three months or oftener, if required by said commissioners, a full and particular statement and account of his receipts and disbursements from the time of his appointment or election, as the case may be, or from the time of his last report, which statement shall be published in at least two newspapers published in Howard county, and shall exhibit also his vouchers