ELK RIDGE.*

1914, ch. 11, sec. 1.

120. The County Commissioners of Howard County, at the time of the annual tax levy for the year nineteen hundred and fourteen, and each succeeding year, are hereby authorized, directed and required to make a special annual levy of such amount as may be mentioned in the petition hereinafter referred to, on each one hundred dollars of the whole assessable property, situated in the village of Elk Ridge, Howard County, to be collected as other County taxes in said County are collected, and the revenue derived from said special annual levy to be used by the said County Commissioners of Howard County for the sole purpose of the betterment of the roads, sidewalks, sanitary measures, drainage and other improvements in said village of Elk Ridge; provided, twenty-five or more persons residing in said village and owning such taxable real or personal property in said village, shall, prior to each annual levy, petition the said County Commissioners, thereby asking that such special levy be made, and in said petition mentioning the amount desired to be specially levied, provided, that the same shall not exceed the sum of twenty cents on each one hundred dollars of assessable property as aforesaid; provided, however, that all taxes collected under the provisions of this Act shall be used exclusively by the County Commissioners of Howard County for the betterment of the roads, sidewalks, drainage, sanitary measures and other improvements within the area as provided for in Section 121 of this subtitle.

1914, ch. 11, sec. 2. 1924, ch. 492.

121. For the purposes of this Act the metes and bounds of the Village of Elkridge shall be deemed and taken as follows: Beginning at the point where the Mill Race of the Old Hockley Mill passes under the Viaduct Bridge of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and thence following the course of said Mill Race down to the Patapsco River; thence following the Patapsco River down-stream to Deep Run Stream; thence going up Deep Run Stream to the place where the fourth or last course of the land known as the Nadden property crosses Deep Run Stream; thence leaving Deep Run Stream and following the fourth and third lines of the Nadden property reversely to the western side of the right of way of the Washington Branch of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad; thence along
