155. They shall elect at their first meeting, after having taken the oath of office, a registrar of said city, said registrar to be a registered voter of the corporation of Ellicott City, and shall fix and ascertain by ordinance his duties and compensation. Said registrar shall hold office at the pleasure of the said Commissioners of Ellicott City, and in case of a vacancy in the office of the registrar, by death or otherwise, the said Commissioners shall elect some person to fill such vacancy, fixing and ascertaining by ordinance his duties and compensation.

1914, ch. 836, sec. 81B. 1924, ch. 406, sec. 81B.

156. The President of the Commissioners of Ellicott City may call upon any officer of the City entrusted with the receipt and expenditure of public money for a statement of his accounts, as often as he or the Commissioners aforesaid may think necessary. Also the Commissioners of Ellicott City shall cause such official entrusted with the receipt and expenditure of public money to, during the month of July in each and every year, prepare a statement showing the receipts of all moneys during the year and the expenditure of the same; and this statement shall be printed and mailed to each taxpayer at the time his tax bill is mailed to him.

1914, ch. 836, sec. 81C.

157. The said President shall see that the ordinances of the said Commissioners are duly and faithfully executed and shall report, on or before the first day of July in each year, to the Commissioners of Ellicott City the general state of the City, with an accurate account of the money received and expended.

1914, ch. 836, sec. 81D.

158. The Commissioners of Ellicott City, by ordinance, shall have the power to appoint such policemen as they shall deem proper, not exceeding three, who shall have and exercise within the limits of the city all the power commonly known as the police power to the same extent as the police officers of the State have or could exercise said power within said limits; and the said officer or officers shall be compensated for their services as the Commissioners of Ellicott City may determine by ordinance, and shall hold office at the pleasure of said Commissioners.

1914, ch. 836, sec. 81E.

159. They may pass all ordinances necessary to regulate or prevent the keeping of swine within the corporate limits of Ellicott City, to tax, regulate, restrain or prevent the going at large of dogs, and to provide for killing the same in default of payment of such tax.

1914, ch. 836, sec. 81F.

160. They may pass all ordinances necessary for the good government and police of the city, and enforce the observance of all ordinances by
