

finest and penalties, not exceeding Twenty ($20.00) Dollars for any one offense.

1914, ch. 836, sec. 81G.

161. No person, persons, company, companies, corporation or corporations, railroad or railway company or companies shall dig or open up any of said City's streets, lanes, alleys or avenues for the purpose of laying any railroad or railway tracks, gas or water pipes, or the planting of any telephone, telegraph or electric light poles without first receiving permission to do so from the Commissioners of Ellicott City, said permission being by ordinance passed at a regular meeting of said Commissioners.

1914, ch. 836, sec. 81H.

162. Any Justice of the Peace resident within the corporate limits of said city, upon complaint made before him, of the violation of any ordinance of said city or corporation, shall issue process in the name of the Commissioners of Ellicott City to recover the fine or penalty imposed for the violation of such ordinance against the party so offending, and may hear and determine the matter as in any case arising under the laws of the State, and shall receive the same fees therefor.

1914, ch. 836, sec. 81-I.

163. The justice may, in default of payment of any fine or penalty imposed by him for a violation of any ordinances of the said corporation, commit the party fined to the Howard County jail for a period not exceeding ten days; and the Sheriff of Howard County shall receive and confine the party so committed in the same manner as other prisoners, and shall be entitled to the same compensation therefor to be paid by said corporation.

1914, ch. 836, sec. 81J.

164. The Commissioners of Ellicott City, if they shall deem it necessary, may appoint a counsel to the corporation, and may allow him such compensation as they may think proper for his services, not exceeding Fifty ($50.00) Dollars per annum.

1914, ch. 836, sec. 81K.

165. The President may remit any fine or penalty imposed under any ordinance of the Commissioners of Ellicott City.

1914, ch. 836, sec. 81L. 1927, ch. 435.

166. It shall be the duty of the County Commissioners of Howard County to pay over annually to the Commissioners of Ellicott City one-half of the amount of taxes levied and collected annually for road purposes by the said County Commissioners upon the assessable property, liable to taxation, within the corporate limits of the town of Ellicott City.