

1902, ch. 249, sec. 98E1.

216. All gambling or playing of cards, crap, dice, whether for profit, drinks, cigars, cigarettes or tobacco, or the keeping or permitting to be used any gambling device, slot machine or any music box or boxes or music of any kind, or other gambling machines, is hereby strictly prohibited under a penalty of fifty dollars and cost, in each case of trial and conviction before a justice of the peace, who shall have exclusive and final jurisdiction therein; and all saloons shall be closed from the hours of 12 o'clock P. M. to 5 o'clock A. M., under the same penalties as are in this section provided, and no minors or loiterers shall be allowed in said premises, under similar penalties. In the event of a second conviction, the license of the licensee and the place wherein his business has been conducted shall be suppressed for the period of two years.

1902, ch. 249, sec. 2.

217. This Act shall apply to the entire corporate limits of Ellicott City; provided, all fees paid for liquor licenses in that portion of the corporate limits of Ellicott City lying within Baltimore county shall be paid to the clerk of the Court of Baltimore county, to be applied as directed in section 16 of chapter 334 of the Public Local Laws regulating liquor licenses in Baltimore county, passed at the January Session of 1890, and said Act shall remain in full force and effect in the corporate limits of Ellicott City lying in Baltimore county.

1892, ch. 281, sec. 98F.

218. Every person receiving a license under this subtitle shall frame his or her license under a glass and place the same so that it shall at all times be conspicuous and easily read in his or her chief place of making his or her sales, and no license issued under this sub-title shall authorize sales by any person who shall neglect this requirement.

1892, ch. 281, sec. 98G.

219. Any person, or persons, or company having a license under the provisions of this sub-title who shall hereafter be convicted of violating any of the provisions of this Act, or the conditions of his, her or their license, shall be subjected to a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than six hundred dollars; and for any second offense whereof, he, she or they shall be convicted, his, her or their license shall be vacated and revoked; and he, she or they shall be subjected to a fine of not less than five hundred dollars, nor more than one thousand dollars, or to imprisonment in the jail of Howard County, or in the House of Correction for not less than three months nor more than twelve months, or to both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court; the license of any person or company who permits minors to frequent or loiter about his, her or their place, or disreputable or disorderly persons to make it a customary place of visitation, or resort, may be, at any time, upon proof, revoked by the Circuit Court for Howard County or by the mayor, counsellor and city
