289. The county commissioners of Howard county are authorized and empowered to issue bonds to the amount of six thousand dollars, of which sum an amount not exceeding four thousand dollars shall be expended for the purpose of building a new school-house or houses in Ellicott City, in said county, and the balance thereof to be applied for the purpose of building new school-houses elsewhere in said county by the board of school commissioners of Howard county, in their discretion; said bonds to be issued in sums of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars each, to be signed by the president of the board of said county commissioners, and countersigned by the clerk of said board, with the corporate seal of said county commissioners thereto attached—said bonds to bear date September the first, eighteen hundred and eighty-eight, and to bear interest at the rate of four and a half per centum per annum, payable annually on the first day of September of each and every year, for which interest proper coupons are to be attached to said bonds, signed by the president of the board of the said county commissioners; said bonds to be free from all State, county and municipal taxation.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 14, sec. 121. 1888, ch. 182.

290. The county commissioners shall annually levy upon the assessable property of Howard county a special tax sufficient to pay the interest on

*Ch. 485, 1922, authorized $60,000, and ch. 18, 1924, $180,000 of bonds for schools, but ch. 18, 1924, repealed ch. 485, 1922, as to $60,000 of school bonds. Both Acts provided for levying taxes to pay interest on and to redeem said bonds. Ch. 213, 1929, authorizes Howard County to issue $80,000 of bonds for schools, but this Act will be submitted to the voters of the county in November, 1930, on petition filed under Article 16 of the State Constitution.
