

1908, ch. 232, sec. 9A (p. 706). 1929, ch. 92, sec. 9A.

309. The Mayor and Common Council of Sykesville are hereby authorized and empowered whenever in their judgment the needs of the town require, to issue registered bonds or certificates, in sums of one hundred dollars ($100.00), to be signed by the Mayor and countersigned by the Clerk of the Common Council of Sykesville, in an amount not to exceed in the aggregate the sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000), bearing interest not exceeding 6% per annum, the interest payable semi-annually. Said bonds or certificates to be payable 15 years from the date of their issue and to be redeemable, at the pleasure of the Mayor and Common Council of Sykesville at any time after five years from their date. Said bonds shall be exempt from State, county and municipal taxation and shall not be sold for less than their par value, and the proceeds derived from the sale of said bonds shall be employed in grading, paving or macadamizing the streets of said town or any other permanent improvement.

1908, ch. 232, sec. 9B (p. 707). 1929, ch. 92, sec. 9B.

310. The said Mayor and Common Council are hereby directed and authorized, in making their annual levy, after said bonds are issued, of municipal taxes, to levy a sum sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds and to provide a sinking fund for their payment at maturity, not exceeding 20 cents on each one hundred dollars of assessable property, provided the total levy shall not exceed the rate of 60 cents on the hundred dollars on all property subject to municipal taxation within the corporate limits of the Town of Sykesville.

1904, ch. 256, sec. 10.

311. The Mayor and Common Council may pass such ordinances as they may deem necessary for the preservation of the health of the town, and remove all nuisances from and prohibit all business within the corporate limits thereof as shall, in their opinion, injuriously affect the sanitary condition thereof.

1904, ch. 256, sec. 11.

312. The Mayor and Common Council shall cause to be constructed, as they may determine necessary for the public benefit, sidewalks in any of the streets of said town not less than four feet in width, of brick, concrete, cement or other suitable material, and may assess upon the land on abutting said sidewalk one-half the cost thereof, which assessment shall be a lien upon the abutting property, and may be collected by the Mayor and Common Council as other debts of like amount are recoverable in this State by law. The Mayor and Common Council shall have power to make all necessary regulations as to notices of such assessments to property owners.
