

may be committed to the county jail for a period of not more than thirty days.

1906, ch. 227, sec. 17.

56. The said commissioners shall have the power to levy and collect taxes in said town not exceeding the rate of thirty cents on the hundred dollars in any one year, on all assessable property in said town, on the same basis of assessment as the said property shall for said year be assessed for State and county purposes; provided, that all property in said corporate limits used only for agricultural purposes shall only be assessed as such agricultural property and not as town lots. On the first day of July in each year taxes shall be deemed to be in arrears and interest shall be charged and collected from that date until paid; and immediately after the first day of July the collector of taxes shall deliver to each delinquent, who has not prior thereto received the same, an account of his assessment and the taxes and interest due thereon, with a notice and warning to said delinquent thereto attached, that unless payment be made in full within thirty days from the delivery of said notice, the same will be collected by process of law; and the said collector may at any time after the first day of July proceed to seize, levy upon and sell the property of said delinquent, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay said taxes with interest and costs thereon, and on the first day of September of each year the collector shall immediately proceed to collect all unpaid tax bills by seizing, levying upon, advertising and selling said property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay said taxes, together with interest charges and costs of sale, and for this purpose the said collector is hereby clothed with all the powers possessed by collectors of taxes under the Code of Public General Laws.

1906, ch. 227, sec. 18.

1906, ch. 227, sec. 19.

✓ 58. The said commissioners shall have the power to establish the limit and width of the streets of said town and to improve the same, and remove obstructions therefrom, and may open new streets, lanes and alleys; that the said commissioners shall have the power to provide for the payment of damages and expenses of opening, widening and laying out, grading, improving and keeping in good condition, the streets, lanes, alleys and sidewalks in said town, and for the purpose may levy and assess the property adjoining such improvements to the extent the same may be benefited thereby; provided, that the property owners may appeal from their decision in like manner as other similar appeals are taken to the Circuit Court of Kent County.
