

two newspapers printed and published in Chestertown, and deliver or mail to each taxpayer a bill of his taxes, and the taxes so levied shall be due and payable on the first day of September of the year in which they are so levied. On the first day of January in each year taxes shall be deemed to be in arrears, and interest shall be charged and collected on all taxes not then paid from September the first, the date when they become due and payable; and immediately after the first day of January the treasurer shall deliver or mail to each delinquent who has not prior thereto received the same on account of his assessment and the taxes and interest due thereon, with a notice and warning to said delinquent thereto attached, that unless payment be made in full within thirty days that the same will be collected by process of law.

1906, ch. 528, sec. 59C. 1908, ch. 311 (p. 877).

100. The said Commissioners shall have full power to make all regulations and ordinances not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State as from time to time they may deem necessary or expedient for the comfort, convenience and prosperity of the said town and its inhabitants; for the prevention, removal and abatement of any nuisance and the preservation of health, the suppression of vice and immorality and to regulate by ordinance the hours of the night when children under the age of sixteen years shall not be allowed in the streets, lanes or alleys of Chestertown, except in going to or returning from divine worship, or in company with a parent or guardian, and for the general police regulation within the limits of said town, and provide fines, penalties and forfeitures for the violation of any of the ordinances passed by said Commissioners, but no fine or penalty shall exceed the sum of twenty-five dollars.

1906, ch. 528, sec. 59D.

101. No person or corporation shall keep a dog or bitch in said town without obtaining a license from the commissioners for that purpose in the month of October in each and every year, paying at the time of the license being granted one dollar for each dog and one dollar and fifty cents for every bitch, and at such times and for such periods as the commissioners may by ordinance require; every dog and bitch shall be properly muzzled, and every dog and bitch found running at large in said town without being licensed or muzzled as aforesaid shall be shot or otherwise destroyed by the bailiffs or police of said town.

1906, ch. 528, sec. 59E.

102. The bailiffs and police appointed by the said commissioners are hereby vested within the corporate limits of said towns with the same power and authority as any constable may now or hereafter have under the laws of this State. They may make immediate arrest, without warrant, of any person violating any town ordinance, whenever, in the judgment of said bailiff or police, the delay necessary to the issuing of warrants would be dangerous to the peace and quiet of the town, or the lives,
