

which Chestertown is situated, shall be appointed, it shall not be lawful for him to decline receiving and acting upon said appointment, or to refuse to execute his bonds for the performance of said duty, as provided in the succeeding section.

1908, ch. 357, sec. 65A (p. 876).

110. The Commissioners of Chestertown may levy on the assessable property of Chestertown such sum of money as they may deem necessary, not exceeding fifteen cents on the hundred dollars in any one year, in addition to the levy of thirty-five cents on the hundred dollars now authorized by law, and shall have the same powers in the collection of such additional sum as they may levy as they now possess.*

1920, ch. 326, sec. 65B.

111. The Commissioners of Chestertown may levy on the assessable property of Chestertown such sum of money as they may deem necessary, not exceeding fifteen cents on the hundred dollars, in any one year, in addition to the levy of fifty cents on the hundred dollars now authorized by law, and to have the same powers in the collection of such additional sum as they may levy, as they now possess.

1924, ch. 133.

112. The Commissioners of Chestertown may levy on the assessable property of Chestertown such sum of money as they may deem necessary, not exceeding eleven cents on the hundred dollars, in any one year, in addition to the levy of sixty-five cents on the hundred dollars now authorized by law, and to have the same powers in the collection of such additional sum as they may levy, as they now possess. Of said increased levy six cents on the hundred dollars shall be for the benefit of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company, and all of the monies collected therefrom shall be paid by the Commissioners of Chestertown to the said, The Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company.†

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 15, sec. 66. 1864, ch. 277.

113. The commissioners of Chestertown may appoint the collector of taxes for Kent county, or of the district of which Chestertown forms a part, to collect the corporation tax of said town from time to time; and the collector so appointed shall be bound to give bond and collect the said taxes according to the terms and provisions of Section 114 of this subtitle of this article, under the penalty of fifty dollars, to be recovered by indictment by the grand jury, and judgment of the circuit court for Kent county, as in ordinary cases of punishment; and the said collector shall receive the same compensation for collecting said tax, as he may receive from the county commissioners for collecting the county tax.

*This section approved by the voters.

†This section was approved by the voters at the election in April, 1924.