

duties that are now or hereafter may be imposed on them by law, and they shall each receive, as compensation, the sum of five hundred dollars.*

1894, ch. 177, sec. 79C. 1914, ch. 648, sec. 79C. 1918, Ch. 318.

139. The said County Commissioners shall meet every first and third Tuesday in each calendar month from the first day of January to the first day of January next succeeding, and at such other time or times as may be necessary.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 15, sec. 80. 1876, ch. 99

140. The county commissioners shall have the general supervision of the public roads in Kent county, and the work done thereon, and for this purpose they shall, at their first meeting in January after their election and qualification, assign among themselves the different districts of the county, one of said commissioners to each of said districts, whose duty it shall be to supervise all the public roads in the districts assigned to him, and to go over said roads at least one day and not more than two days in each month, for which services they shall be entitled to the same per diem and mileage as for other duties performed by them; and before the accounts of any person appointed as supervisor under them by the board of county commissioners are passed and paid by the said board, they shall have first the endorsement and approval of the said county commissioner thus assigned to, and put in charge of said district.

Richardson v. Kent Co., 120 Md. 153.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 15, sec. 81. 1860, Art. 14, sec. 83.

141. They shall pay to the clerk whom they shall appoint such sum as they shall think proper for his services.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 15, sec. 82. 1860, Art. 14, sec. 84.

142. The president and clerk of said commissioners may administer oaths relating to the business matters of said board in all cases required by the laws of this State, or the rules and regulations of said commissioners.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 15, sec. 83. 1880, ch. 487.

143. The county commissioners shall have full power and authority to make reasonable rules and regulations for the receipt and delivery of freight, at or upon the public wharves in Kent county, and to enforce the observance of said rules and regulations, by imposing upon the party violating the same, any reasonable fine not exceeding two dollars for any one violation, which fines shall be collected from all residents of the county as small debts are now collected, and from non-residents of the county by attachment, as set forth in the next section.

*All county elective officers are now elected for four years, in accordance with Art. 17 of Md. Constitution. Ch. 716, 1920, provided for an additional salary of $200 each for a period of two years.