

State's Attorney, the Sheriff and the Constables of Kent County to prosecute all persons found violating the law by refusing to comply with its provisions. All laws or parts of laws, whether public general laws or public local laws, inconsistent with the provisions of this sub-title are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

DROVERS.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 15, sec. 92. 1867, ch. 66.

167. Every drover, or person employed by him, who shall drive any cattle, sheep or hogs into or through Kent county shall have each one marked with red paint or tar on the forehead or back, so that the mark may be easily seen.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 15, sec. 93. 1867, ch. 66.

168. Any person finding any unmarked cattle, sheep or hogs in a drove in said county, may take them from such drove, and if they are not his own, he shall advertise them for sale in some public newspaper published in Kent county, and by handbills set up in at least two public places in Queen Anne's county, for not less than three weeks; and if no owner shall then appear to claim them, he shall sell them at public sale to the highest bidder.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 15, sec. 94. 1867, ch. 66.

169. One-half of the net amount of such sale, after deducting the charges for advertising and keeping such cattle, sheep and hogs, shall belong to the person so detecting or taking them up, and the other half shall be paid to the county commissioners, to be applied or divided equally among the public schools in said county.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 15, sec. 95. 1867, ch. 66.

170. If it shall appear that the drover and person employed by him to drive said cattle, sheep and hogs were ignorant of the provisions of this sub-title of this article, or had no intention to evade them, or upon reasonable notice of their existence, shall proceed to mark said cattle, sheep or hogs in the manner required by Section 167; the two preceding sections shall not be applicable to such case.

ELECTION DISTRICTS.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 15, sec. 96. 1860, Art. 14, sec. 90. 1884, ch. 142.
1896, ch. 289, sec. 96.

171. Kent county is divided into seven election districts.

1896, ch. 289, sec. 97.

172. The first election district shall begin at the point on the boundary line between the States of Maryland and Delaware, where Kent county joins Queen Anne's county; and running thence by and with said State
