

respective drawers in which they were originally placed, for further use in drawing any additional Jurors needed to fill vacancies.

1914, ch. 106, sec. 142A.

217. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the position of Foreman of the Grand Jury, either temporary or permanent, caused by sickness, death, absence, or by permission of the Court, the Court shall appoint some other member of the Grand Jury to be Foreman thereof during such vacancy. If for any reason any person or persons drawn as a Grand Juror, shall fail to attend the session on the first day thereof and answer to his name at the end of the drawing, or be disqualified, or be excused for cause, the Court shall forthwith proceed to fill such vacancy or vacancies from the remaining number of twenty-five names of those who are present, in the order in which their names were drawn from the election district or districts in which such vacancy occurs, but if there be no names or persons, or an inadequate number of them, left in the drawer for the district where the vacancy occurs, the Court may fill such vacancies by drawing the lacking number of persons in any district from those of the other districts. All vacancies in the Petit Jury caused by drawing to fill vacancies in the Grand Jury, or otherwise, may be filled by drawing the necessary number of names from the ballots replaced in the drawers as aforesaid, from the districts in which such vacancies occur; or such vacancies may remain unfilled, if the Court deem it unnecessary to fill the same.

1914, ch. 106, sec. 143A.

218. The Court shall have the same power to compel the attendance of Jurors, and shall proceed in all other matters relating to Jurors not provided for in this Act, as under the Public General Laws relating to Jurors.

219. Whenever a judge, or the judges, of the Circuit Court of the Counties embraced in the Second Judicial Circuit, draws a jury, he or they, after selecting from the taxables and voters, as required by law, the list of names to be placed in the box for the drawing and certifying to the list, shall cause the names on the list to be numbered, commencing with the first name thereon, numbering upwards consecutively, and then, instead of requiring the names on the selected list to be written on ballots and placed in and drawn from the box, the said judge or judges drawing the jury, in his or their discretion, and option and in lieu of such written ballots, may cause the Clerk of the Circuit Court for the County wherein they are to be used to provide a number of white marbles or balls, each of the same size and plainly marked with numbers from one consecutively upwards to the highest number on the selected list of names certified to by said judge or judges, which said marbles or balls shall be placed in the box from which drawings are made in the case where ballots are used; where the drawings are made by districts, the marbles or balls shall be deposited in the district compartments in such way that their numbers shall correspond, in each district, with the names on the judge's or judges'
