

1902, ch. 161, sec. 138C.

224. If any justice of the peace so selected as a police justice is unable, by reason of sickness, absence, relationship, or for any other temporary cause whatever, to attend to his duties as such police justice, it shall be the duty of the State's Attorney for said county to designate and require another justice of the peace to perform the duties of said police justice so sick, absent or otherwise unable to perform the duties of his said office, so long as the same may be necessary, or until the Governor shall select another to perform said duties, and the said State's Attorney shall forthwith certify in writing any selection he may make to the County Commissioners of Kent county. The justice so required to perform said duties as police justice shall receive the same compensation as prescribed by law for the police justice and shall be paid by the County Commissioners, who shall deduct the same from the salary of the police justice.

1902, ch. 161, sec. 138D.

225. It shall be lawful for any justice of the peace of Kent county, where the police justice is not accessible, to issue a State writ for the arrest of any person violating any of the laws of this State, or any ordinances of the town of Chestertown; but when issued by any justice of the peace other than the police justice said writ shall be made returnable before the police justice and not before the justice issuing the same; the said police justice alone being authorized to try criminal cases in said district; and when said writ is so issued and returned the said justice so issuing the same shall be allowed the fee therefor now fixed by law, which fee shall be taxed in the cost of the case and paid by Kent county, unless the same be adjudged against the party arrested and paid by him.

1902, ch. 161, sec. 138E.

226. Whenever any person shall be arrested charged with the commission of any criminal offense, within the Fourth or Chestertown Election District of said county, or with the violation of any of the ordinances of the town of Chestertown, it shall be the duty of the officer making said arrest to take the person so arrested before the police justice selected under this Act, whether such arrest shall be made upon the warrant of said police justice or of some other justice, as authorized by Section 225 of this Article, or whether such arrest is made without writ or warrant in cases where by law such arrest may be so made; and the officer making such arrest shall be entitled to receive five cents per mile for conveying each prisoner before the police justice.

1902, ch. 161, sec. 138F.

227. Every justice of the peace selected under this Act as police justice, shall file with the County Commissioners of Kent county, on the first days of January, April, July and October, in each and every year, an account, verified by his oath or affirmation, of all fines, forfeitures and penalties imposed by him under the laws of this State, or under any ordinances of the town of Chestertown, which said account shall show the
