

1920, ch. 419, sec. 8.

285. Any employee or agent of the said Commissioners of Millington shall have the right of entry at all reasonable hours upon any private premises and into any buildings in the town of Millington while in the pursuance of his official duties and any restraint or hindrance offered to such entrance by any owner or tenant or agent of said owner or tenant shall be a misdemeanor punishable under Section 289 of this Article.

1920, ch. 419, sec. 9.

286. The Commissioners of Millington may enter upon any State, county or municipal street, road or alley or any public highway for the purpose of installing, maintaining and operating the water and sewerage systems provided for under this Act, without the receipt of a permit or payment of a charge, provided that whenever any State, county or municipal highway is to be disturbed the proper authorities having control thereof shall be duly notified and provided further that said highway shall be repaired and left by the Commissioners of Millington in the same, or a not inferior condition to that existing before being torn up, and that all costs instant thereto shall be borne by the Commissioners of Millington.

1920, ch. 419, sec. 10.

287. Any individual, firm or corporation having buildings, conduits, pipes, tracts or other physical constructions in, over or under the public roads, streets or alleys of the town of Millington which shall block or impede the progress of the water or sewerage systems of the Commissioners of Millington while in progress of construction and establishment, shall upon reasonable notice from said Commissioners of Millington, promptly so shift, adjust, accommodate or remove the same, at their own cost and expense, as to fully meet the exigencies occasioning the said notice, and should the exigencies of any case involve a taking, in the constitutional sense, of the franchise or right in the exercise of which such obstruction had its origin, the Commissioners of Millington shall be empowered to condemn an easement in said franchise or right. Any violation of the provisions of this section shall be a misdemeanor punishable under Section 289 of this Article.

1920, ch. 419, sec. 11.

288. The Commissioners of Millington shall have the power to have condemned such quantity of land as they may deem necessary in order to carry out the provisions of this Act under the provisions of Chapter 463 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session of 1914.

1920, ch. 419, sec. 12.

289. Every act or omission designated as a misdemeanor in this Act, unless otherwise provided, shall be punishable before any Justice of the Peace, or in the Circuit Court for Kent County, and shall be brought
