1908, ch. 171, sec. 11 (p. 888).

345. The said corporation shall have the power to suppress all disorderly meetings; to prohibit the use of profane, indecent, seditious or riotous language, drunkenness, fighting and disorderly conduct in said town; to regulate the firing of cannon, guns, pistols, squibs or any kind of firearms and fireworks in said town; to prevent the running at large in said town of all animals; to prevent any immoderate riding or driving through the streets of said town with carriage, stage, cart, wagon, sleigh, bicycle or other vehicle or on horseback, so as to endanger the lives, limbs or property of the citizens or corporation, or disturb the quiet enjoyment of the streets or thoroughfares of said town; to prevent indecent exhibition of every kind; to preserve order and secure persons and property from violence, danger or destruction within said town, and prescribe fines, penalties and forfeitures for the violation of any of the said ordinances; but no fine or penalty shall exceed the sum of twenty-five dollars, and all fines and penalties imposed by said ordinances shall be collected as other fines and penalties and forfeitures are collected under the laws of the State, and all fines, when collected, shall be promptly paid to the treasurer of the corporation for the use of the town, and in case of default in the payment of such fines, penalties and forfeitures, and the costs attending their imposition and collection of the same, the offender may be imprisoned in the town or county jail for a term not exceeding thirty days, in the same manner as commitments are made for fines imposed by the Circuit Court for the judicial district in which said town is situated, on conviction for misdemeanor; but any party fined or subject to a fine or forfeiture may, after the same is imposed, supersede or stay the same for five days by giving ample security to the officer imposing the same; and any party subject to a fine, penalty or forfeiture by virtue of any of the provisions of this Act, shall have right of appeal within five days thereafter to the Circuit Court of Kent county, upon giving ample security for the payment of such fines and costs. All ordinances shall be posted for thirty days in some public place in said town, and the certificate of the secretary entered upon the records of the corporation shall be due evidence of the passage and publication of the ordinance respectively. All ordinances shall be enforced from and after the date of their last respective publication.

346. The said corporation shall have full power to make all regulations and ordinances not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State as from time to time they may deem necessary or expedient for the comfort, convenience and prosperity of said town and its inhabitants, for the prevention, removal or abatement of any nuisance and the preservation of health, the suppression of vice and immorality, and for general police regulations within the limits of said town, and to impose fines and
