

AUDITOR.

1927, sec. 317, sec. 1.

12. The County Commissioners of Montgomery County are hereby authorized and empowered to direct an annual audit of the books and records of any official or employee of Montgomery County whether elected or appointed whose duty or a part of whose duty it is to receive or disburse public funds payable to or receivable by or on behalf of Montgomery County, and for the purpose of conducting such audit, the said County Commissioners are hereby authorized to appoint annually or from time to time for a shorter term, such auditor or auditors as they may determine and to pay to the auditor or auditors so employed either by way of salary or per diem such sum or sums as may be necessary to secure a competent audit of the finances of the county.

1927, ch. 317, sec. 2.

13. The County Commissioners of Montgomery County, upon the recommendation of any auditor, appointed by them are hereby authorized and empowered to direct the installation and maintenance of any system of bookkeeping or accounting, in the office of any official of Montgomery County, handling county funds.

1927, ch. 317, sec. 3.

14. Failure or refusal of any official of Montgomery County, charged with the handling of the public funds, to install or keep the books or system of bookkeeping or accounting directed by the County Commissioners, shall constitute misconduct in office, and any official so refusing or so neglecting to install or maintain said system shall be subject to removal from office by the properly constituted authority.

1927, ch. 317, sec. 4.

15. For the purpose of conducting such audits or for carrying out of any of the provisions of this Act, the County Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to levy annually against all assessable property located in said county, such sum or sums as they may in their discretion deem necessary.

BARNESVILLE.

1904, ch. 680, sec. 1. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 26.

16. The citizens of the Town of Barnesville, in Montgomery County, are hereby created a body corporate by the name of "The Commissioners of Barnesville," with all the powers and privileges of a body politic and corporate, and by said corporate name may have perpetual succession, sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in Court of law or equity, and may have and use a corporate seal.
