

1904, ch. 680, sec. 5. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 30.

20. The commissioners shall meet in some convenient place in said town on or before the first Monday in June following their election and as often thereafter as may be necessary to the discharge of their duties.

1908, ch. 15. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 31.

21. Said commissioners annually, on or before the first Monday in April in each year, shall appoint three judges of election, who shall conduct the elections according to the election laws of the State, except that the hours of election shall be from 5 o'clock to 8 o'clock P. M.; except further, that one of said judges may act as clerk of said election; and except further, that ballots used may be as such as were used at elections prior to the adoption of the "Australian System." The said judges of election shall certify to the commissioners the result of said election and declare the three candidates receiving the greatest number of votes duly elected, and said judges shall receive such compensation for their services as the commissioners may determine.

1904, ch. 680, sec. 7. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 32.

22. Said commissioners shall annually appoint a clerk, who may also be treasurer, and who shall keep the minutes of their proceedings in a well-bound book, which shall be open at any time to the inspection of any one interested. If said commissioners appoint the clerk treasurer, the said clerk shall give a bond in such sum as the commissioners shall deem proper, and shall pay out the money that shall come into his hands only on the order of the commissioners, which order shall plainly appear in the minutes.

1904, ch. 680, sec. 8. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 33.

23. The commissioners shall annually appoint a bailiff and such under bailiffs as may be necessary.

1904, ch. 680, sec. 9. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 34.

24. The commissioners shall allow their clerk and bailiff such compensation as they shall think proper.

1904, ch. 680, sec. 10. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 35.

25. The commissioners and all other officers of the corporation, including judges of election, shall, before entering upon the duties of their respective offices, make oath that they will diligently and faithfully to the best of their abilities, skill and judgment, perform their duties of office, and shall file a certificate of the same among the records of the corporation.

1904, ch. 680, sec. 11. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 36.

26. The bailiff and clerk shall give bond in such sum as may be deemed proper by the commissioners for the faithful performance of their respective duties.
