

with said account or tax bill, he shall publish such account or tax bill in some newspaper of Montgomery county at the expense of the taxpayer, and may, unless the same be paid within thirty days after the delivery or publication of any account or tax bill, collect the same, with all costs, by distress and sale of the real and personal property of the delinquent at public auction, after giving at least ten days' notice of such sale published in some Montgomery county newspaper or by printed or written handbills posted in not less than three public places, and upon such sale of real estate the president of the commissioners shall execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers a deed of the property so sold, which deed shall be presumptive evidence that all the requirements of law have been complied with in making such sale and deed.

1904, ch. 680, sec. 19. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 44.

34. The bailiff shall attend the meetings of the commissioners and perform such duties as they may require of him; shall preserve the peace and good order of the town, and for this purpose is invested with the same power and authority as any constable has under the laws of this State.

1904, ch. 680, sec. 20. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 45.

35. The president shall preside at all meetings of the commissioners, and shall have all the powers and authority of a justice of the peace in any matter wherein the commissioners are a party, and shall receive the same fees allowed justices of the peace in similar cases; and an appeal from his judgment wherein the fine or demand exceeds five dollars may be taken to the Circuit Court for Montgomery County, which shall hear and determine the matter as upon appeals from justices of the peace.

36. The bailiff shall be paid the same fees for making distress for taxes as are allowed county collectors; and for making arrests or serving process for violations of any ordinance of the corporation, the same fees as are allowed constables for similar services; and in any case wherein the bailiff willfully fails to discharge any duties of his office he may be fined not exceeding ten dollars for each offense.

37. Any fines, penalties or forfeitures imposed by this charter or by any ordinance of the commissioners may be collected by proceedings in the name of the commissioners or under warrant of a justice of the peace, and the said president or justice of the peace shall have power to commit the offender to the county jail on failure to pay such fines or forfeitures until the same shall be paid, with costs.
