

1890, ch. 118, sec. 13. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 69.

55. The commissioners may pass such ordinances, not inconsistent with law, as they may deem beneficial to the town; may open and close streets, lanes and alleys; straighten, grade and pave the same; remove nuisances and obstructions therefrom; restrain all disorders and disturbances; prevent all congregations of disorderly persons in public places; apprehend and fine all tramps and vagabonds; impose a tax on dogs, geese, hogs and other animals running at large on the streets, or totally prohibit the same, and may impose fines, penalties and forfeiture for the violation of their ordinances and commit all offenders to the county jail until the same be paid with costs.

1890, ch. 118, sec. 14. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 70.

56. The commissioners may pass such ordinances as they may deem necessary for the preservation of the health of the town, and remove all nuisances from, or prohibit all business within the corporate limits thereof as shall, in their opinion, injuriously affect the sanitary condition thereof.

1890, ch. 118, sec. 15. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 71.

57. The commissioners may, as often as they deem advisable, cause an assessment to be made of all real and personal property within said town or the corporate limits thereof, by a person to be appointed and paid by them, which assessment shall not exceed the assessments for State and county purposes, and the commissioners may levy a tax thereon not exceeding ten cents on the hundred dollars' worth of assessable property.

1890, ch. 118, sec. 16. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 72.

58. Any person may appeal from the valuation of the assessor to the commissioners, who shall meet on the first Monday in June after any such assessment, and remain in session as long as may be reasonably necessary, to hear and determine such appeals, and shall give reasonable notice of such meeting, and shall increase or abate such assessment as they may deem just.

1890, ch. 118, sec. 17. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 73.

59. Whenever the commissioners shall levy a tax, they shall cause to be made out an alphabetical list of the persons charged therein, and shall cause to be affixed thereto the respective sums to be collected from such persons, and a warrant to the chief bailiff to collect the same.

1890, ch. 118, sec. 18. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 74.

60. The chief bailiff shall, within ten days after the receipt of said list and warrant, render to each person named therein an account or tax bill, showing the amount due by him, if he be a resident of the town, and if he be a non-resident, and in consequence thereof can not be conveniently served with said account or tax bill, the bailiff shall publish such account or tax bill in some newspaper published in Montgomery county at the
