

1890, ch. 118, sec. 25. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 81.

67. The commissioners shall not expend or contract to expend, in any one year, more money than the amount receivable from taxes and other sources for that year.

1890, ch. 118, sec. 26. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 82.

68. The commissioners for the county, justices of the peace, sheriff, constables and all State and county officers shall have, hold and exercise their offices and jurisdiction in said town as if this charter had not been granted; and the commissioners of Montgomery county shall annually pay to the commissioners of Brookeville a sum equal to all taxes levied for the repair of roads upon the real property in said town, to be used on the public streets of said town for the maintenance and repair thereof.

1890, ch. 118, sec. 27. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 83.

69. The commissioners shall have power to establish the original building lines on all the streets in said town as far as practicable without removing present buildings; to establish building lines on any streets hereafter opened, and to compel all persons erecting buildings in said town to conform thereto.

1890, ch. 118, sec. 28. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 84.

70. The parts of the several county roads within the limits of said town are hereby made and declared to be public streets or avenues of said town, and shall be from time to time improved and repaired as in the discretion of the commissioners the public interests may require and the resources of the town will justify; but this section shall not be construed as interfering in any manner with the rights of the Brookeville and Washington Turnpike Company in maintaining their road through said town; provided, however, that the commissioners may lay sidewalks along said turnpike road in such manner as not to impede or obstruct the proper use thereof by said company.

1890, ch. 118, sec. 29. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 85.

71. Neglect or non use shall not work a forfeiture of this charter.

BUILDINGS.

1922, ch. 265.

72. All persons, firms or corporations shall before erecting, constructing, or re-modeling any building in said Montgomery County where the actual cost of such construction or re-modeling shall exceed the sum of three hundred dollars, said person, persons, firm or corporation shall make application to the clerk of the County Commissioners for a permit to erect, build, re-construct or remodel any building within the limits of said county. The application for the permit to build shall set forth in detail the location of the land and the size and approximate cost of the building.
