

be taken down or inserted in the record, but the party offering such testimony may accompany the offer of the same with a statement of the facts proposed to be shown in connection therewith, and such statement shall be considered by the Court in connection with the question objected to, and the Court of Appeals, upon appeal from any final order in the case, shall consider and determine, upon the record, all objections to testimony taken and reserved during the progress of the cause, and no bills of exceptions shall be required.*

CLARKSBURG.

1892, ch. 592, sec. 1. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 106.

171. The citizens of the town of Clarksburg in Montgomery County, are constituted a body corporate by the name of the Commissioners of Clarksburg, and by that name may sue and be sued, and have and use a common seal.

1892, ch. 592, sec. 2. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 107.

172. The corporate limits of Clarksburg shall be as follows: Beginning at the mouth of the road leading from Clarksburg to Damascus, running with said road one hundred and sixty paces to a corner; then through the lands of C. R. Murphy and J. H. Gibson, to the northern corner of the M. E. Cemetery; then between the cemetery and J. H. Gibson to the Browningsville road, crossing said road to the land of the heirs of W. G. Dronenberg in a straight line through said land to the northeast corner of the property of W. W. Lewis; then on the dividing line between W. W. Lewis and the heirs of the late W. L. Hurley to the national road; then diagonally across said road to the land of M. T. Lewis; from thence in a straight line to the southwest corner between M. T. Lewis and Leonidas Wilson; then on the line between M. T. Lewis and Leonidas Wilson; then on the line between Hilton and Kemp and Leonidas Wilson to the land of J. H. Gibson to the land of Leonidas Wilson in a straight line to the Clarksburg and Boyd's Station Road; across said road into the land of Mrs. Mary A. Miles to the southwest corner of Rachel Snowden's lot; then in the line between Mrs. Mary A. Miles and Rachel Snowden's to the land of J. E. Deets; then across the land of J. E. Deets in a parallel line with the national road to the dividing line between J. E. Deets and G. W. Hilton, then thirty paces into the fields of G. W. Hilton to a corner, then in a straight line in a northeast direction across the national road to the beginning.

1892, ch. 592, sec. 3. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 108.

173. The male citizens of Clarksburg of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who have resided in said town for six months next preceding the election shall on the first Monday in May annually, elect three free-

*Sec. 3, ch. 526, 1924, repealed all laws inconsistent therewith.