

which is not included in the list of assessments and shall value the same and make returns of such valuations verified by affidavit giving the names of the reputed owners of said property, together with their postoffice addresses and the description and value as fixed by him of such property to the County Commissioners, and it shall be the duty of the clerk to the County Commissioners to mail to the postoffice addresses of each person as shown by said return a written notice warning such person of the intention of the County Commissioners after ten days from the date of such notice, which date shall be the mailing of such notice, to assess to such person said property appearing by said return to belong to such person, unless cause to the contrary thereof be shown on or before the expiration of ten days from the date of such notice; and in the event no good cause to the contrary be shown within the time limit by such notice, the County Commissioners shall proceed to assess such property to the persons appearing by said returns to be the owners thereof at the valuation placed thereon by such assessor. That the assessor so appointed shall have an office in the Court House at Rockville and shall attend same each and every day and shall perform such other duties in relation to the duties of his office as may be required by the County Commissioners. That said assessor may be removed from office with or without cause or notice by the County Commissioners, who are authorized and empowered to appoint his successor for the unexpired term.

That said County Commissioners shall annually levy and pay to said assessor a salary not to exceed the sum of eighteen hundred dollars per annum, payable monthly.*

TAXES.

1906, ch. 171, sec. 62X. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 152.

222. All county taxes shall be due as soon as they are levied, and if not paid on or before the first day of September of the year in which they are levied shall bear interest from that date until paid at the rate of six per centum per annum, and at any time after the first day of January next succeeding the date of the levy, and not before, payment may be enforced by sale, as hereinbefore provided.

1906, ch. 171, sec. 3. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 154.

223. Nothing in this act contained shall be taken or understood as impairing the duties and obligations of collectors of taxes in Montgomery County appointed prior to the first day of July, 1906, in regard to levies of taxes in their hands for collection; and it is hereby expressly provided that said collector shall proceed to complete such collections under the existing provisions of law as fully as if this Act had not been passed, and the clerk to the county commissioners shall continue to perform all the duties by him required to be performed in relation to the receipt and disbursements of taxes heretofore levied until all outstanding accounts thereupon dependent shall be settled and closed, and for that purpose alone

*Sec. 2, ch. 258, 1922, repealed all Acts inconsistent therewith.